Aquatics Complex at Allan Witt Park open Labor Day

Fairfield, California (Thursday, August 30, 2012)—The City of Fairfield's ultimate indoor/outdoor water park is your key to worry-free, weatherproof plans for the Labor Day holiday. The aquatics complex will be open Monday, September 3, from noon to 7 p.m.

Swimming is unquestionably one of the best ways to release energy and relieve stress. Swimming and relaxing by the swimming pool can be very satisfying and is an activity suitable for all age groups.

You won't be bored. Bring the whole family out to the Aquatics Complex and enjoy your afternoon with visits from area mascots - Mr. Jelly Belly, Ms. Allie, and Mr. Gator. And just imagine dipping into the heated indoor play area and pool, walking the lazy river, and testing your skills on the slides and diving board.

Enjoy lots of local fun in the relaxing and entertaining atmosphere of the Aquatics Complex at Allan Witt Park. Two for one coupons for Monday, September 3 are available at various retailers throughout the community.

Please call Maureen Lillemoe for more information at 707-428-7726.
